Re: Rudersdal, EOOD, et al. v. Harris, et al., 1:18-cv-11072 [rel. 1:19-cv-01762]

Dear Magistrate Judge Lehrburger:

Please accept this letter from Plaintiffs' counsel in the above-named matters as Plaintiffs' response in case No.: 1:18-cv-11072, as to this Court's May 2, 2022 Order (ECF 429) seeking a proposed case management and scheduling order by May 16, 2022, after the remaining parties conferred.

Plaintiffs have not been able to confer with the remaining Defendants as none have yet responded. Accordingly, Plaintiffs asserts that it is prudent and seeks a 60-day continuance to file a proposed case management and scheduling order to give the parties the opportunity to confer by July 15, 2022.

No prejudice will inure to this Court or any party.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Sylvia J. Rolinski

Defendant Harris by USPS

Counsel has not provided any justification for why such a long extension of time is required. Nor has counsel provided any details about when counsel attempted to contact which defendants. Counsel also has not complied with this Court's individual rules concerning timely filing of requests for extensions. Nonetheless, an extension is granted until June 1, 2022. All remaining defendants must promptly respond to and meet and confer with Plaintiff's counsel. If defendants fail to do so, Plaintiffs may seek appropriate relief. To the extent any remaining defendant is pro se, Plaintiff shall serve a copy of this order on that defendant by May 20, 2022.

SO ORDERED:

HON. ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
